

CHURCHES WILL HOLD Y. W. C. A. DAY

Pastors All Over City Will Call Attention to Big Campaign.

THE CLOCK SHOWS $73,292

Today is "Y. W. C. A. day" in all the local churches. Every clergyman in Washington of every denomination has been requested to make mention of the campaign which is being conducted to raise a fund for the proposed new building of the local Y. W. C. A.

Yesterday the 200 campaign workers, men and women, who are leaders in all circles of the capital, reported at the daily luncheon a total collection for the day of $73,292. This added to the amount previously announced, brought the total to date up to $133,292.

The women are still leading in the race for funds, but the business men are coming ahead fast, and have promised to overtake the lead of the women. Eldridge E. Jordan, chairman of the business men's committee, is putting renewed energy into the teams for the coming week.

Report Large Subscriptions.

The women's teams—ten in number, with ten women on each team—reported yesterday for the day's work, $12,235, and the men's teams, $4,448.

Among the teams which are making a fine showing are those headed by Mrs. William Hamilton Bayle, Miss Elizabeth S. Pierce, and Miss Mabel Grindin. Those on Mrs. Bayle's team are Mrs. John Scully, Mrs. Margaret Zimmerman, Mrs. H. E. Kendall, Mrs. C. E. Richardson, Mrs. Rhine Wolf, Mrs. Eugene Byrnes, and Mrs. Frederick True. Miss Pierce's team includes Dr. Ada R. Thomas, Mrs. John D. Smith, Mrs. Thomas H. Mitchell, Mrs. Ella S. Knight, Mrs. Lincoln Brown, Mrs. O. B. McNeill, Miss Belle Van Zee, Mrs. Henry H. Mann, Mrs. H. L. Eustis, and Mrs. Fawcett.

Miss Grindin's team comprises Miss Ralph Schroeder, Miss Elizabeth Bryan, Mrs. Raymond Morgan, Miss Edith Goodrich, Miss George Kendall, Miss Anna Holden, Miss Ruth Lerner, Miss Rhelion Jackson, Miss Ruth Noyes, and Miss Mary Colman.

Mrs. Woodbury Puffer's team has as its members Mrs. G. W. W. Hanger, Mrs. Horace Chandler, Miss Elizabeth North, Mrs. Willoughby Chesley, Mrs. George Chandler, Mrs. Samuel O. Kimberly, and Miss Eudora Roberts.

Mrs. Bayle's team is leading the women's teams in amount of collections, having reported a total of $12,235, and Mrs. W. B. Ryan's team is second with about $1,500.

Leading the men's teams is that of William Knowles Cooper, secretary of the Y. W. C. A., with a total subscription of $1,000.

Girls Doing Big Work.

The business girls' five teams, under the leadership of Miss Frances E. Chickering, and five teams of captains, Miss Edith Brainerd, Miss Alice Deal, Miss Louise Hays, and Miss M. F. Dickford, are doing a great work after their regular office hours. Yesterday they turned in a total of $1,125, and during the three days of the campaign they have raised $1,125.

The Congressional Club, which is headed by Mrs. H. W. Roberts, wife of Representative Roberts of Massachusetts, has become a center of Y. W. C. A. activity. For Mrs. Roberts is captain of a team of women campaigners, all of whom are members of the club.

The daily luncheons are being served by volunteer girls from the various churches of the city. The pretty girls, clad in white dresses, many of them daughters of wealthy parents, are proving themselves capable waitresses, and the business men are served much more speedily than at the restaurants to which they usually go for luncheon.

At the end of the day the direction of Mrs. Elizabeth Hubbard, and Miss Grace Miller, who run the regular luncheons of the Y. W. C. A.

Clock Attracts Attention.

Thousands of persons have stopped in Y street to stare at the huge campaign clock hung in front of the Y. W. C. A. Building at Twelfth and F streets, which Prof. Hugh E. Saltzman Gives New Version of Mrs. Rubel's Case.

DETECTIVES AT WORK

Prof. Hugh E. Saltzman, the well-known teacher of dramatic art and music, with studio at 1107 G Street Northwest, last night gave a new and interesting version of the "theft" of jewelry, valued at $1,000, from the hands of Mrs. Emma Rubel, of 222 Eleventh Street Northwest, while she was shopping in a department store Friday afternoon.

According to Prof. Saltzman, there is little mystery about the "theft," and detectives even now are shadowing the person who, it is believed, has the jewelry in his possession. These detectives are acting under instructions from Inspector Thomas, chief of detectives, in said, and an arrest may be made in the next few days.

"In December last," said Prof. Saltzman, "last night, Mrs. Victoria Alice Ripley, whose home is known for years, suddenly in and summoned me to her home, at 11 Eleventh Street Northwest, I found her in a serious condition, and I gave her the first aid I could. It was decided to remove Mrs. Ripley to a hospital.

Started for Hospital.

"A friend of Mrs. Ripley, a Mrs. Emma Rubel, whose husband, Leonard Rubel, is a property man at the Belmont Theater, was asked to accompany Mrs. Ripley to the hospital. Mrs. Rubel had been caring for Mrs. Ripley after the latter became ill. On January 12 Mrs. Ripley, Mrs. Rubel, and I started for the hospital in a cab.

"Suddenly Mrs. Ripley declared she would not go unless she was provided with a veil. I asked Mrs. Rubel if she would go to a department store and purchase a veil. Mrs. Rubel left as and when she gave Mrs. Ripley the veil, she could not go to the hospital, as she had no money."

"What have you done with your money, Mrs. Ripley?" I asked.

"I gave it to Mrs. Rubel and my diamonds to Mrs. Rubel," she replied.

"When Mrs. Rubel returned with the veil, I asked, 'Where is the money and diamonds Mrs. Ripley gave you, Mrs. Ripley?'"

"I asked the question in such a way that the woman flushed. She replied that her husband had the money and that she had the diamonds. I asked her to get the money, in order to defray Mrs. Ripley's hospital bill, and Mrs. Rubel consented. Mrs. Ripley was admitted to the hospital, and her relatives in Detroit, informing them of her plight.

Asked for the Money.

"On March 12, Justice John Barnard, in the District Supreme Court, appointed me a committee of the person and estate of Mrs. Ripley. She was suffering from a mental trouble. After I was appointed, I went to the court to see Justice Barnard. I asked him to let me have the money given to Mrs. Ripley. He commented, 'I then asked Mrs. Rubel, his wife, to deliver to me the jewelry.'

"I won't do it," Mrs. Rubel replied. "Mrs. Ripley gave me these diamonds as a gift and I intend to keep them."

"I said nothing more at that time, but last week I procured an order from Justice Barnard instructing her to appear in court and show cause why she should not deliver the diamonds to me. Then," said Prof. Saltzman, "I went to the hearing in court. Mrs. Rubel went to police headquarters and informed Inspector Boardman that the jewelry had been taken from her handbag while she was shopping in a department store."

Pickpockets Are Busy.

Two more victims of pickpockets reported their losses to the police yesterday.

Mrs. C. O. Graham, of Falls Church, Va., reported the loss of a pocketbook containing $2, and Frank Suco, of 124 South Alley Northwest, was robbed of $24 while he was sleeping at First and L Streets Northwest.

GEORGETOWN ENDS FESTIVAL DAY AT BIG BANQUET

Sons of Blue and Gray Unveil Memorial to Founder.

PROMINENT MEN SPEAK

Alumni Association Celebrates the Proud Event with Day of Festivities.

Georgetown University yesterday had one of the proudest days in her history.

The celebration of the memory of her founder, Archbishop John Carroll, in art, in song, and in the fellowship of the banquet hall.

A noble bronze statue of her patron and creator was unveiled in the scholastic retreat of her campus in the morning. His eminence Cardinal Gibbons, speaker, Champ Clark, Attorney General Wickham, Chief Justice Edward Douglas White of the United States Supreme Court, Rev. A. J. Donlon, president of the university, and others paid tribute to Archbishop Carroll. An informal luncheon followed the unveiling of the statue.

"We have erected with loving hands a statue to one of the proudest names in America's Catholic hierarchy," said Rev. John Conway. "This is the expression of a great thought, and it speaks of a worthy priest."

Notable as many of the addresses were, they were all subordinate to the George Washington spirit which broke out in "Hoya, Hoya, saxas" throughout the evening, and in the singing of the old melodies of alma mater.

In introducing the toastmaster, Martin Conroy, of New York, George E. Hamilton, president of the alumni, briefly outlined the conception of the project which resulted in the statue. He said that the statue was the result of the efforts of the alumni, and that it was a fitting tribute to the founder of the university.

"We are indebted to the George Washington spirit which broke out in 'Hoya, Hoya, saxas' throughout the evening, and in the singing of the old melodies of alma mater."
